Sub: Inviting you to deliver an Online Session as a guest speaker

I hope you and your family are doing well. I would like to appreciate your effort in the field of Web development. On behalf of “Mastering Up” – one of the free digital learning platforms, I request you to spend your precious one hour to share your knowledge with the student community who will be very happy to interact with one of the eminent persons. This webinar will help them to enhance their knowledge.

For the purpose of participant certification we will telecast your lecture in our YouTube channel also at the end of the session we will have a Q and A. I assure you that we won't collect any registration fee from the participants. The lecture will be available for free to the participants. Also, I request the following from your end,

1. The topic of your speech
2. Your available Date and time
3. Photo and one-page profile

I eagerly look forward to your reply
